

ROV Supervisors Course

This course is aimed at ROV (Remotely Operated Vehicles) personnel working towards, or in a managerial or supervisory capacity.

By the end of the course delegates will have a knowledge of:

- Safety Management Systems
- Team management
- Environmental factors
- Training and assessment
- ROV inventories and reporting requirements
- Preparation of formal procedures
- Pre-mobilisation visits
- Capabilities and limitations of ROVs and new developments
- Safety legislation
- Basic management skills
- Leadership and motivation techniques
- Environmental considerations
- Contingency plans
- Mobilisation
- Responsibility and accountability

Resources/Pre or Post Course Activity

Completion of relevant competences.

Requirements for Attendance

At least 180 days offshore acting in the capacity of Senior Pilot / Submersible Engineer and assessed as competent at these roles.

Course Duration

3 days

Venue

Subsea Training School, Portland, Dorset, United Kingdom